

What's happening at the Nic?

A visit to the Nicolaysen Art Museum will help your students develop visual literacy skills as well as encourage their creativity while meeting essential curriculum standards.

Currently, we have two exhibitions by landscape artists with very unique styles:

- A Relative Condition: The Landscape Paintings of Karen Kitchel
- Kate Petley: The Spaces in Between

Both exhibitions will be on display until April 11, 2010.

From April 15 to April 23, we will have our Sensational Small Stuff Invitational exhibition (an exhibition formerly known as the Postcards from the Wild Wild West). This show is comprised of 5" x 7" works of art by various local, regional and national artists. These works are in a variety of mediums such as watercolor, oil, pastel, ceramics, and photography.

The evening of April 30 is the opening reception for two new exhibitions:

- Allen True's West and
- The Perfect Fit: Shoes Tell Stories from the Fuller Craft Museum.

These shows will run through July 25 and September 12 respectively. On our website (www.thenic.org) you will find pre and post curriculum guides that you can use in the classroom to create a greater depth of learning from your museum experience. Give us a call and let us create a museum visit to meet your individual class needs (Education Department at 307-235-5247).

A Relative Condition: The Landscape Paintings of Karen Kitchel

Kate Petley: The Spaces in Between

Contact:

Education Curator
400 E. Collins, Casper
(307) 23505247
www.thenic.org

Hours:

Tues-Sat 10 a.m.-5 p.m.
Sunday noon-4 p.m.

Admission:

$5/adult, $3/child, children
4 and under free.
Free Family Sundays are free for Wyoming residents