PROCLAMATION

WHEREAS, many organizations, school districts, educators and parents have publicly expressed concern about the bullying of children, and the Natrona County School District has made partnerships with community agencies to protect our students from being bullied; and,

WHEREAS, it behooves all of us, as parents, students, educators and citizens to recognize and teach the lessons to be taken from recent nationwide tragedies and identify changes to prevent repetitions of this nature; and,

WHEREAS, we must safeguard schools for our children, and, through our recognition of the serious issues that face them each day, offer a school environment that holds promise and security; and,

WHEREAS, it is important that we acknowledge and heighten awareness about the serious issues and the negative effects of bullying, including the long-term damage it can cause in our youth, which may include the risks of teenage suicide; and,

WHEREAS, providing a safe physical and emotional environment is a significant goal and a personal responsibility of each individual; and,

WHEREAS, it is time for us to speak out AGAINST bullying and FOR our children and provide a symbol of our year-round struggle against bullying,

NOW, THEREFORE, I, Bill Brauer, Mayor of the City of Casper, Wyoming, do hereby proclaim the third week of November as in our community, and urge all citizens to support and encourage the end of bullying so that our children may thrive in a safe environment.

IN WITNESS WHEREOF, I have hereunto set my hand and caused the official Seal of the City of Casper, Wyoming, to be affixed this 15th day of November, 2010.
